BIG CONTEST

Since everybody seems to be running some contest or the other these days, this department in order not to be left out has "cooked one" up all by itself. There are no judges, no duplicate prizes and nothing to buy. It's one of those simple things that even we can run. Now, hold on tight, while we give you the very brief details.

DETAILS

All you have to do is be the first to bring in the correct answer to the question which will follow very shortly. Everybody is eligible except Tommy Redmon, Bill Connor, Fred Draper, Henry Busch, Phil Harris and Guy Lombardo. They're not eligible simply because every contest has to disqualify somebody in order to amount to anything.

QUESTION

Now, here's that all-important question:

"The picture of what building inspector is in what Upland store window?"

There you have it—just as simple as all that. All you have to do is name the store and the man and you're on your way to fame and fortune—fame, at least because you'll get your name (in full, too) in this column.

PRIZES

Here are the prizes to be given:

One cup of coffee and one doughnut—to the person who brings in the first correct answer.

Just coffee—to the one coming in second.

Half cup coffee—to the person who learns the answer from the other prize-winners and reports to us immediately.

To all others our thanks for competing and better luck next time.

START NOW

So, there you have it. The biggest contest ever attempted by this department. Just imagine a complete order of one cup of coffee and one doughnut to the person who brings in the answer first to the question, "The picture of what building inspector is in what Upland store window?" So you not only have to be fast but accurate too. What a chance to compete against all the other brain wizards. Don't hesitate, come running . . . and if you get out of breath just fall over in our office because we will have the necessary revival medicines ready.

If nobody guesses the answer by noon tomorrow, we'll give you some more hints, but if you already know the answer don't wait, for remember, "He who hesitates is lost" and this is a pretty lost world these days to be lost in.

POSTSCRIPT

We're serious about the contest and the prizes, too. So put on your thinking caps, oil up the rusty joints and get going.

Lewis Gives In To Federal Court Order

Appears Just 15 Minutes Before Deadline

Lewis, flanked by his attorneys, left headquarters of the United Mine workers 15 minutes before the deadline for his appearance..

Earlier in the day, Justice Edward M. Curran of U. S. district court had directed the miners' chief to appear before the board.

Lewis said nothing as he strode out of the union's building.

Curran acted quickly after Lewis' attorney raised the question of adequate time to reply to the summons and challenged the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley act.

Welley K. Hopkins, attorney for the chief of the United Mine workers, had argued barely 10 minutes when Curran ruled. Lewis did not appear personally to explain why he should not appear before the board of inquiry.

Curran told Hopkins the court had been lenient in granting Lewis an opportunity to "show cause." The judge said that in his opinion he could have directed Lewis to appear before the board without the formality of today's hearing.

Truman Logical Choice--Roosevelt

Declaring he believed party more important than candidates, the Democratic state chairman told a meeting of the San Diego men's Democratic club last night the candidate and platform would be decided upon at the national convention on the basis of conditions prevailing then.

Truman-Wallace 'Debate' Continues Merrily On

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry A. Wallace came back to the capital today, hard on the heels of President Truman's thinly veiled suggestion that he take his whole third party movement to Russia.

At the same time anti-Truman Democrats refused to accept as final an official army declaration that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is no more available to them than to the Republicans.

And on the other side of the political fence, reports bobbed up that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft have agreed to gang up against Harold E. Stassen's bid for Maine's 13 GOP convention votes.

These were the developments, one at a time:

Mr. Truman, who less than two weeks ago denounced "Henry Wallace and his communists," in WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said today the Truman administration created a "false crisis" and is deliberately leading the American people toward war.

"I charge," said Wallace, "an artificial crisis was deliberately manufactured to stampede Congress and the people into accepting universal military training and conscription."

The third party presidential candidate denounced administration policies in a 5500-word statement prepared for the Senate armed services committee. The committee is hearing testimony for and against UMT and a temporary revival of the wartime draft to back the administration's new halt-Russia policy.

Wallace's testimony was distributed to reporters several hours before Mr. Truman struck out

WAR AND PEACE

New Appropriation for Atomic Weapons Voted by House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — New funds for atomic weapons and research for military road work in Alaska, and for the word war with Russia were okayed today by the House appropriations committee.

It also approved new grants for relief work in army-occupied countries and for veterans administration personnel.

The committee admonished the $332,407,782 bill to meet shortages in funds previously voted for various agencies for the year ending June 30. The bill is scheduled to come before the House for a vote tomorrow or Thursday.

The total is $66,311,478 below the amount President Truman had asked. Most of the cuts were in funds sought for the maritime commission, the postoffice department and the air force clothing budget.

In addition, the committee cancelled $200,345,000 in money previously appropriated for the army, mostly for the finance service.. The army itself had proposed a $150,000,000 cancellation.

Not a penny was cut from the $150,000,000 asked by the atomic energy commission, all of it in contract authority for which Congress will put up the actual cash later. The new authority boosts to $659,081,863 the amount the commission will have at its disposal this year.

The committee admnished the commission to "move forward with all possible speed in its research programs, both in the wartime and peacetime uses of the newly discovered secrets."

Pan-American Meeting Opens With 21 Nations

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Top diplomats of 21 Pan-American nations assembled here today for what may prove to be the most important conference in the history of the Western Hemisphere.

Three basic projects face the delegates:

1. Moulding of the Inter-American system into a strong regional bloc within the framework of the United Nations.
2. Creation of a program of economic aid for Latin America.
3. Enactment of a pact providing for a peaceful solution of differences between the American republics.

Not on the agenda, but certain to play an important role in the discussions are the issues of communism and colonialism in the Western Hemisphere.

Ghost of OPA Revived Again

WASHINGTON, (AP) — OPA's restless ghost came back to the halls of congress today as senators linked inflation dangers to plans for big military spending.

Talk of the possibility of reviving wage-price controls, rationing and other curbs on the domestic economy was touched off by Bernard M. Baruch.

The 77-year-old adviser to presidents shook the gathering dust from the issue by declaring that the cost of America's stop-Russia drive will have a "tremendous impact" on prices and living conditions at home.

The talk got another push from Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric Co., and former vice chairman of the war production board.

No Action On Anti-UMT Group--Spring

Formation of a Chaffey college student organization against military training has not been brought to the attention of the school administration, and no action is being taken in the matter, Supt. Gardiner W. Spring said today.

"This matter has not as yet been brought officially before the administration," he declared.

If and when the matter is presented, he added, the only question involved will be: "Is this a legitimate education activity, or a political matter."

"If it is found to be political," he continued, "it does not belong within the school."

The institution cannot and would not forbid formation of such an organization by students acting as private citizens, he emphasized.

But if the movement is adjudged to be political, the students would have to apply for use of school buildings or facilities in the same way as any outside po-

Soldier's Body To Arrive Here

The body of Pfc. Arnulfo C. Morales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Morales, 1570 East Ninth street, Upland, will be shipped here soon for funeral services and burial, according to a wire received yesterday by E. Tweed Stone of the Stone funeral home from the commanding officer of the distribution center at Oakland.

Pfc. Morales was killed in action in France on July 9, 1944, at the age of 19 years. He was a native of Scottdale, Ariz., and had lived in Upland for 15 years.

Surviving besides the parents are two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Ynostroza and Mrs. Calisto Gomez, both of Upland.

A brother of Pfc. Morales, Louis Morales, was killed in action in the Pacific theater, but no word has been received as to when his remains will be shipped to the United States for burial.

Spanish Aid Voted by House

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The house voted 149 to 52 today to invite Franco Spain into the $6,205,000,000 foreign aid program.

The foreign affairs committee had agreed to include Spain. But Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), in charge of the aid bill, said the state department is against it.

And whether the senate will go along is another question.

In any event, Spain could get in on the program only if she agreed like other participating countries to join in a European recovery program of cooperation and self help.

Spain now is specifically named as eligible to qualify under the bill before the house. Eastern European nations are not.

The door is open for Russia and her satellite nations to come in under the same terms as Spain, by agreeing to terms of the program.

Rep. Hand (R-NJ) immediately offered an amendment to limit the European program to the 16 nations which have signed up already to work together toward an economic comeback.

It would cancel out the section which now mentions Spain and would permit Russia and her satellites to come in if they agree to play ball.

Austin To Ask Palestine Truce

LAKE SUCCESS (AP) — Warren R. Austin is set to ask the United Nations to order a truce in Palestine.

The chief United States delegate also has a resolution in his pocket calling for a special session of the U. N. assembly on the Palestine problem. His aides said both proposals are ready for presentation to the security council this afternoon (2:30 P. M., E. S. T.). For council backing on the cease-fire proposel, the president announced truce project last week in a news conference at the White House.

The truce and special session proposals represent only a portion of revised American plans for the Holy Land. Other parts call for an interim U. N. trusteeship in the Holy Land in lieu of partition and instructions to the Palestine partition commission to cease work.

DR. HENRY JOSEPH KAUFMAN

Death Takes Dr. Kaufman

Death came early this morning to Dr. Henry Joseph Kaufman, prominent Ontario dentist, who suffered a sudden heart attack in the night at his home, 519 East J street. Rushed to San Antonio Community hospital, he passed away at 1 a.m., a few minutes after his arrival there.

A native of Freeman, S. D., Dr. Kaufman moved to this community from there and had made his home in Ontario and Upland for the past 28 years. He was well known for his associations with Masonic and civic organizations, being a member of the Upland Masonic lodge, the Royal Arch Masons of Ontario and the Ontario Lions club.

Surviving are his wife, Emma Kaufman; one daughter, Miss Kathryn Kaufman, at home; one son, Dr. Wilbert H. Kaufman, Ontario, and two grandchildren. He leaves also a sister in Los Angeles and three brothers in South Dakota.

J. B. Draper Co. is in charge of arrangements for the funeral services, which are incomplete.

Honor Scouts With Dinner

Members of Troop No. 1 of the Upland Boy Scouts were honored last night at a dinner served in Fellowship hall by the Men's class of the Methodist church. The class sponsors the troop.

Feature of the evening was a talk by Bradford F. Datson, assistant scout executive of the Old Baldy council, and the showing of motion pictures of the Little Rose Bowl Chaffey vs. Cameron game.

Charles Adams, singer and entertainer, appeared in several selections, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Bowers. William Amberson, president, presided, and S. V. Koester presented the program.

F. E. Friesen, scoutmaster, was present, along with the Scout committeemen, C. Ernest Olson, Dr. Earl L. Wenger, Elmer Allen, Mark Bradburn, Fred Dundas and Clifford Jellison. Scouts present were Billy Richardson, Ian Richardson, Bruce Mount, Domingo Fierro, Richard Crooke, Teddy Slape, Billy M'Gaha, Ronald Wenger, Elmer Allen Jr., Loren Sanchez, Roland Sanchez, David Randall, Craig Bradburn, Bud Learmont, Daniel Jeran, Charles Olive, Kenneth Mueller, George Conley and Gordon Nicholson.

Violence Breaks Out In Stock Exchange

NEW YORK, (AP) — Violence broke out in the stock and curb exchange strikes today as waves of pickets rushed police at the entrance to the New York stock exchange.

Men were knocked down, women screamed, some police were thrown to the sidewalk. One detective was picked up, his head bleeding.

Uniformed police swung clubs and calls were sent for ambulances, police emergency squads and patrol wagons.

The skirmish began as the pickets lined up before the exchanges on the second day of the strike for higher wages in the heart of the world financial center.

The strikers are members of the AFL United Financial Employes union.

Letters For 'First Flight' Reach 4,000

The Upland post office received an additional 2000 letters yesterday for the "first flight" of helicopter mail service from Upland Apr. 1, Postmaster Orton P. Brady said today.

"We have at least 4000 letters now," the postmaster said this morning. He expects "at least" 1000 more between now and Thursday.

Stamp collectors of the nation highly value the cancelled stamps on such "first flight" letters, he explained.

The letters received, Mr. Brady said, are from all parts of the nation and Canada. Receipts yesterday, he added, are double those of the previous day, and are a strong indication of the interest evidenced in the new service.

When instituted, Upland will have two flights of helicopter mail daily, operating through the Ontario International airport. Air mail will be taken from the Upland office at 6:50 and 11:25 a.m. to the Ontario field to be flown to Los Angeles.

Upland 20-30 Host To Clubs

With International vice-president Rodney Hilbert, Fullerton, heading a list of distinguished guests, the Upland 20-30 club tonight will play host to more than 100 20-30 members from six other clubs of this area.

The affair, a dinner meeting to be followed by entertainment, is slated at the Upland Women's clubhouse, starting at 7:30.

Other officers of 20-30 International who have signified their intention to be present include International Trustee Rupe Lawing, San Bernardino.

Southern California district officers will also attend.

Clubs which will be guests of the local organization tonight include those of Ontario, Fontana, Chino, Pomona, LaVerne and Azusa.

President Harold Keller of the local group will preeside.

Upland Rotarians To See Pictures Of Junior Rose Bowl

Pictures of the Junior Rose Bowl will be shown to members of the Upland Rotary club tomorrow at its regular weekly meeting, Ellery Wright, program chairman, announced today.

The motion pictures of the grid classic in which the spirited Chaffey Panthers subdued a hard-fighting Cameron Aggie team from Oklahoma are being made available to the club by Chaffey college.

E. Tweed Stone will show the pictures, Mr. Wright said.

Panel Speakers Give Outline Of Activities

Upland's projected "backyard" recreation program last night was endorsed by the Coordinating council and will receive the whole-hearted support of that organization.

This action was taken at the council's regular monthly meeting after a panel discussion of the proposed program by heads of three organizations involved.

Speakers were Lew Fuller, city recreation director; Fire Chief Howard Paulin and Andrew R. Morrison, secretary of the chamber of commerce. Each talked briefly on one phase of the plan.

Purpose of the plan, Mr. Fuller said, is to stimulate recreation in the home. Development of back yards as recreational areas, he said, would automatically result in beautification.

Family, neighborhood and city competitions in such sports as badminton, handball and volleyball may be developed through these channels, he pointed out.

The active support of all citizens must be enlisted if the campaign is to be a success, he concluded.

Methods by which this recreation plan can be coordinated with the annual "clean-up, paint-up" campaign were discussed by Chief Howard Paulin in his talk.

City beautification and enhancing of property values were points stressed by Mr. Morrison. Beautiful homes and back yards will make this community attractive to tourists and prospective residents, he asserted.

Date of the start of the recreation plan has not been set as yet.

Arthur Steven, Jr., appeared before the council last night. He reported that Junior Jobs, Ltd., is progressing well.

A report on the Red Cross drive was made by Mrs. Ralph Mitchell. To date, $4900 of the $6310 has been collected, she said.

Casselman To Head Taxpayers

Pete Casselman, Ontario, last night was elected chairman of the newly-formed West End unit of the San Bernardino County Taxpayers' association in a meeting held at the offices of Armstrong nursery.

Paul Stiker, Upland, was named as secretary of the group. Decision to form a single, unified taxpayers association for this area was made at the meeting. Previously, separate units for both Upland and Ontario had been discussed.

A membership drive to enroll all interested persons is the next goal, Mr. Casselman stated.

Present last night to explain the functions of the state organization of taxpayers was D. F. Dunster, public relations officer of that body.

Upland representatives who have had a major part in forming of the association include Earl E. Hawthorne, R. O. Price, Warren H. Wass and Allan S. Barr.

Ontario leaders of the work include J. Awdry Armstrong, Mrs. Jerene Appleby Harnish, Gilbert I. Benson, Paul B. Hofer and Sherman M. Hoyt.

ANNUAL CONCLAVE

Local Principals Hear About Developments in Education

Developments in the field of secondary school administration were discussed last week at an annual conference of California secondary school administrators, attended by Ernest R. Camfield, principal of Upland Junior high school, and Ernest W. Fischer and Olof Snyder, principal and vice principal of Chaffey high school.

Sessions were held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thurdsay at Mission high school, San Francisco.

Aviation training in high schools is a coming thing, administrators were told. General instruction, rather than flight training, should be provided, it was added.

Greater development of student government is also in prospect. Meeting in conjunction with the administrators was the state association of student councils. James Jennings, Glendale high school student, and association president, was a speaker.

School boards of this state are coming to the realization that higher salaries and better equipment must be provided in all schools. That was declared by Stanley Wood, member of the Oakland city school board.

But with these added expenditures, Mr. Wood asserted, boards are going to demand better and more efficient teaching and administration.

"Training for 'followership' is more important than training for leadership." That was asserted by Carl Bash, president of San Francisco Continuation high school.

Too much emphasis has been given leadership training in American high schools, Mr. Bash said. Instead, more emphasis should be placed on teaching students to get along with each other, he concluded.

A high point on the program was a performance by the All-Southern California orchestra of some 200 pieces. This musical group is made up of members from high schools throughout the Southland.

Mrs. Weber Donor of Back Works

Pomona College library has received the first 22 volumes of the Bach - Gesellschaft edition of "Back, Werke," the complete set of Bach's works, according to Willis H. Kerr, librarian for the Associated Colleges in Claremont.

Purchase of the set, which totals 48 volumes, was made possible by a gift to the college from Mrs. A. L. Weber of Upland, a Pomona college graduate, in memory of her teacher, the late Arthur Dart Bissell, for many years professor of German at Pomona.

The college attempted before the war to obtain these books of music and source notes, but no copies were to be had. Recently Edward Brothers in Ann Arbor reprinted the volumes by photolith process, publishing the first books last February.

The first 10 volumes of the edition are now to be found on the folio shelves of the Pomona college library.

Canned Citrus To Be Subject To Market Agreements

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate agriculture committee has approved a bill making canned fruit subject to marketing agreements and orders.

"Formerly the citrus industry was largely a fresh fruit industry but today approximately 44 per cent of Florida oranges and 70 per cent of Florida grapefruit goes in cans," said Senator Pepper (D-Fla), member of the committee and one of the sponsors of the bill.

"Obviously the canned citrus juices compete in the markets of the country with the fresh citrus fruit. It is relatively useless, therefore, to control the fresh fruit going into the nation's markets if there is to be no control of the canned product."

DEMONSTRATION-LECTURE FOR HOMEMAKERS AT CHAFFEY

Timely and practical information concerning meat will be featured in a lecture-demonstration to be held at Chaffey College on Monday, April 19, at 2 p. m. The meeting is sponsored by the California Farm Bureau Home department.

According to Mrs. M. A. Kipf, chairman of this department for San Bernardino county, the services of a meat specialist have been secured. In his demonstrations he will present meat cutting of beef, pork and lamb, stressing the less-demanded cuts and pointing out their nutritive value.

Lessons on how to identify the various cuts of meat will be presented, in order to help homemakers select their meat purchases to better advantage. The relation of cooking methods to the cut of meat will be discussed, stressing the value of cooking all meats at low temperature.

Ramus Answers Some Questions; Send Your Problems in Today

Do you want to know anything? Do you want to know when you will meet your one and only? What happened to that watch? Ring? If you will make that trip? If you will succeed in your work? Should you invest in a business?

These and many more are the questions that Ramus II will answer both in this column and from the stage of the Grove theatre during his stay here in Upland. To have a question answered in this column, fill out the coupon below and send it to Ramus in care of the Daily News-Herald. Only a limited number of questions will be answered daily, so send yours in today.

Here are answers to some of the questions that were submitted at the Grove last evening. This is the only time that questions submitted at the theatre will be answered in this column. So mail your coupon with your question in at once.

Will we make our home here? Signed, C.M.C.

C.M.C.—Not for another year as your property in Tulsa will have to be disposed of first.

Will I keep my job? Signed, D.H.T.

D.H.T.—Yes, through the summer. You will make a change to Fresno after that time.

What will it be? Signed V.E.

V.E.—About November it will be a boy.

Is my husband true? Signed F.N.N.

F.N.N.—Yes, at his age he couldn't be anything else.

Will my husband's health improve? Signed, F.L.

F.L.—I believe that this condition is not too far advanced and that the injections which he is now receiving will prove beneficial in restoring his health.

Should I go to Oakland? Signed, R.B.

R.B.—It would prove to your interests to make this trip as he is sincere.

Who will I marry? Signed, A.L.M.

A.L.M.—It seems that a former friend will come back into your life. A fellow to whom you once were engaged. Marriage will take place in about a year.

Will I get any money? Signed, L.B.B.

L.B.B.—When your sister passes away, your children will benefit. However, I cannot find you receiving any direct benefit.

What will become of the last love affair? Signed, P.E.D.

P.E.O.—You seem to have had two sad affairs in the past. A new interest will come into your life during the coming summer. His first name appears to be James.

Will my husband find employment? Signed, C.C.N.

C.C.N.—He seems to be in contact with a party from whom he will get a day job. Is that what you want?

Will I be happy with my husband? Signed F.E.V.

F.E.V.—He will be more contented in his home and with you after the arrival of the baby girl.

When will I see my daughter? Signed, S.A.B.

S.A.B.—She plans to come to California around the Christmas holidays but this may surprise you. She is planning on bringing a husband with her.

Pan-American Meeting Opens

Chile, Paraguay and Cuba have expressed hope the conference will take a stand against communist infiltration in the Americas.

Some members have contended it is preferable to have each nation settle its own communist problems.

Joao Neves de Fontoura, chief delegate from Brazil, told newsmen his country would not bring up the communist question. But, he added:

"If the matter is brought up by some other delegation, Brazil will take a position consistent with its internal policy of communism, which culminated with a break of diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia."

Secretary of State George C. Marshall was greeted with communist posters depicting him as a Nazi when he arrived here yesterday. One set read "Heil Marshall" and was decorated with Nazi swastikas. It was the only communist manifestation.

Two Dead in Italian Riots

ROME (AP) — Italian party leaders, disturbed by two political killings in the leftist north yesterday, arranged to meet tomorrow to seek remedies for a rash of violence which threatens their campaign truce.

Communist Umberto Terrachini, president of the constituent assembly, who arranged the truce in an effort to bar bloodshed in the campaign for the vital April 18 elections, called the meeting.

Stave - swinging unemployed, some 7,000 strong, marched through the streets of Milan today, demanding work and relief payments. Police stood by anxiously, because of yesterday's widespread outbursts, but there were no incidents of violence.

The situation was tense as a result of the slaying of two communists yesterday at Samoglia, 25 miles west of Milan, the leftist stronghold of the north. Campaigners were mauled, beaten, pelted with overripe fruit and thrown from platforms at other points in the north.

Truman Goes After Wallace Again

a St. Patrick's day speech, took another poke at his ousted cabinet officer and presidential rival. The setting this time was a dinner meeting of Greek-Americans, the Order of Ahepa.

The President was introduced by Dean Alfange of New York, who told the audience that Wallace and his followers ought to go to the Rocky Mountains "in the role of the Greek guerrillas."

Then, Alfange continued, Premier Stalin might recognize the former vice-president as "the leader of the free government of the United States."

"The dean has stolen my thunder," Mr. Truman said in his extemporaneous remarks. "I was going to tell you that the Greeks had a Henry Wallace. I was going to tell you that the Greeks had a statesman, an orator, a demagogue. . . . They had the greatest demagogue of all times, Alcibiades."

But, the chief executive continued, "if imitators of that ancient Greek conqueror want to see . . . liberties subverted, I suggest that they go not to the Rocky Mountains — that's fine country out there. He ought to go to the country he loves so well and help them against his own country if that's the way he feels."

Upland Troop Plans Exhibit At Exposition

Upland and Ontario Boy Scouts join with 3000 other members of the Old Baldy Scout Council for the first Council-wide postwar Merit Badge Exposition next Friday and Saturday, in the Los Angeles County Fair Grounds at Pomona.

Local troop exhibits will include a "Rocks and Minerals" Merit Badge booth by Ontario troop 11, organized by Commissioner Olin Stark. Upland Cub Pack 1, headed by den mothers and den mother coordinator Mrs. Bert Reed, are preparing a booth featuring craft work by the various 65 Cubs in the 8 dens of the pack. These are typical of the 65 troop and pack 10'x10' exhibits being featured in the exposition from almost every unit in the council.

The exposition opens each evening at 7:30, with a matinee Saturday from 1 p.m. on. Special stags show acts will be presented periodically during each showing. Scouts and Cubs are selling benefit tickets for the exposition, to raise money for improvements at Scout Camp Tulakes, Camp Voorhis and Camp Avalanche. Scouts and Cubs in uniform and children under 9 years of age do not have to buy tickets.

Earl Hawthorne of Upland and H. B. Van Brunt, Sr., of Ontario are serving on the council exhibit judging contest committee. Many ribbon awards will be made to various types of Scout, Cub, and Senior exhibits following the judging to be completed Friday evening.

Local district commissioners headed by Upland commissioner H. L. McLellan and Ontario commissioner Lawrence Hoppe are serving on the Exposition general committee, headed by chairman Tom Lambert of Pomona.

Troop, pack, and senior leaders are working each afternoon and evening all this week at the fair grounds, arranging exhibits. Cubs and Scouts will present in each exhibit booth actual demonstrations of Scout and Cub handicraft and exhibit themes all during the exposition. Upland and Ontario Sea Scout ships are presenting special seamanship demonstrations.

Wallace Accuses President Truman

anew last night at his ousted cabinet officer by suggesting that he go to Russia.

Wallace said "Our country is in danger." But he insisted the danger comes from our own policies "which will bring war—unnecessary war — upon our country."

"The crisis lies in the war fever itself—not in real threats of invasion, but in the synthetic 'threats of invasion' pumped out to support the arms program.

Colborn Appoints Record Manager

Steve Vaughn of Claremont has been appointed manager of the record department of the Colborn Electric Co.

Through education and business training he has a wide background for handling records, classical as well as popular. For three years he was manager of a radio and music store in Claremont and through the American Friends Service committee he conducts musical programs for men at the Chino institution.

He has made a scholastic study of the history of music. Mrs. A. R. Colborn, manager of the local store, said the new record department official was well qualified to assist patrons in the creation of home musical libraries.

Scout Officials Go To Bivouac

Fred Mense of Ontario, registration chairman for the first annual Southern California Senior Boy Scout bivouac at Palm Springs, April 30-May 1-2, today announced that a large number of local Old Baldy Senior Scout officials will trek to the final general bivouac committee meeting in Palm Springs next Monday.

Final plans for the senior encampment, which should draw some 50 to 75 Explorer Scouts and Sea Scouts from units in Ontario, Upland, Alta Loma and Fontana, will be completed on April 5, at the committee general session. Nearly 500 Senior Scouts from Southern California are expected to attend.

Planning to attend the meeting with Mr. Mense from the local cities are: Brad Datson, of Upland, general chairman for the 1948 bivouac; Harry Allen, of Ontario; Stan Traver, of Ontario; Claude McKee, Alta Loma; Rev. Baron McLean, Fontana, and Bob Craft, Ontario. Old Baldy Council, hosts for this year's event, will also be represented by Sea Scout Commodore Alan Ferguson of San Dimas, and Regional Senior Scout Committee Chairman, Robert Baum, of Claremont.

Book Driver After Accident

Accused of driving while intoxicated, and of having failed to stop after an accident, Lloyd C. Jones, 37, El Monte was booked at Upland police headquarters.

Jones was taken into custody Sunday at Foothill and Euclid. In a complaint to officers, Leonso Lopez, 27, 1144 Myrtle drive, accused Jones of failing to halt his machine after colliding with the rear of Lopez' car on Foothill boulevard in Cucamonga. No one was injured in the accident.

Saturday, James C. Jameson was fined $200 in city court on the same charge after his machine and one driven by Bruce A. Boshart, 965 Hermosa, Alta Loma, collided.

Jameson was later released from custody on partial payment of his fine.

Saturday afternoon, Carmen Ruiz Cortez, 24, was taken into custody at Campus avenue and West street when he was seen by officers to be driving in an erratic manner. He failed to pass a sobriety test administered at headquarters.

Candelabra Given by Mathers To Church

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley W. Mather have given to the Upland Methodist church four candelabra in memory of his parents, the late Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Mather.

Seven candles are supported in each candelabra. The late Mr. Mather was a former pastor of the Ontario Methodist church and served for many years throughout the southland.

The candelabra were used for the first time Easter Sunday morning.

Ontario Sea Scouts Going to La Verne

Roy Case, skipper, today announced that Ontario Sea Scouts of the ship "Copperfin" will be guests of the LaVerne ship "Bonita" tomorrow evening at La Verne.

For the program a U. S. navy picture entitled "The Silent Service" will be shown. This is a submarine film which has just been released.

Plans Apartment Buildings Here

Construction of four apartment house units, at a total value of $14,600 was begun this week by J. R. Shinkle, at 182 South Euclid avenue.

Separate permits were issued from the office of Building Inspector Richard Derby for the two structures, each of which will house two apartment units.

One, with a total area of 988 square feet, will cost $7000, Mr. Shinkle estimates. The second, which also includes a laundry room, will have 1068 square feet and will cost $7600.

Mr. Shinkle resides at 850 West Fourth street, Ontario.

Rhenstrom Opens Real Estate Office

Eric V. Rhenstrom, accountant and active in civic affairs, has opened a real estate office at 313 North Second avenue and is combining his accountant and real estate business. The office is the former location of E. O. Bowden, local real estate agent.

Mr. Rhenstrom formerly maintained an accounting office at his residence on West Ninth street but he moved to the downtown location to better serve his clients.

NOTICE OF SALE

Temporary Loan Notes, Housing Authority of the City of Upland, California

Sealed proposals will be received by the Housing Authority of the City of Upland, California (hereinafter called the "Local Authority") at 1200 North Campus Avenue in the City of Upland, California until 11 o'clock A.M. (C.D.S.T.) on April 6, 1948, for the purchase of its Temporary Loan Notes (Sixth Series) in the aggregate principal amount of Three Hundred twenty-four Thousand Dollars ($324,000), at which time such proposals will be opened and canvassed.

The Notes will be dated April 20, 1948, and will be payable to bearer on May 6, 1949. The proceeds of said notes will be used to pay expenses incurred or to be incurred in the development of a housing project or to refund, renew or extend outstanding notes issued in connection therewith, and for which the Public Housing Administration has agreed to make a loan to assist in the development thereof.

For the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on said notes the full faith and credit of the Local Authority will be pledged and said notes will be further secured by a requisition agreement between the Local Authority and the Public Housing Administration under the terms of which agreement the Public Housing Administration agrees to purchase an advance loan note of the Local Authority prior to the maturity of such temporary loan notes and in an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest of all said temporary loan notes and agrees to cause so much of the proceeds of such advance loan note as shall be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon any of said temporary loan notes to be deposited at the respective bank at which said temporary loan notes are payable for the benefit of the holder or holders thereof.

Said notes will bear interest at the rate or rates per annum fixed in the proposal or proposals accepted for the purchase of such notes, will be issued in such denominations, and both principal and interest thereof will be payable at such incorporated Bank having trust powers or incorporated Trust Company as the purchaser designates in his proposal; such Bank or Trust Company must be a member of the Federal Reserve System and must have an unimpaired capital and surplus of not less than the aggregate principal amount of notes designated in the proposal or proposals submitted by the purchaser, provided, however, that such unimpaired capital and surplus need not exceed One Million Dollars. The notes will provide that they are not valid until after such Bank or Trust Company has signed the agreement, appearing on each note, to act as paying agent. The notes will be transmitted to such Bank or Trust Company for delivery to the purchaser upon receipt and disbursement by such Bank or Trust Company of the purchase price thereof in accordance with instructions from the Local Authority. After taking delivery of the notes the purchaser shall obtain the signature of such Bank or Trust Company upon the notes as aforesaid. All fees or charges, if any, of such Bank or Trust Company shall be paid by said purchaser.

Complete certified transcripts evidencing the lawful organization of the Local Authority and the validity of the notes and the requisition agreement will be furnished the attorneys designated by the purchaser to approve the validity of said notes and said requisition agreement, at least five (5) days prior to the date of said notes. The fees or charges of such attorneys shall be paid by said purchaser.

All proposals for the purchase of said notes shall be submitted in a form approved by the Local Authority. Copies of such form of proposals may be obtained from the Local Authority at the address indicated above or from the General Counsel, Public Housing Administration, Washington 25, D. C., or from Regional Counsel, Public Housing Administration, in the cities of New York City, New York; Chicago, Illinois; Atlanta, Georgia; Fort Worth, Texas; and San Francisco, California.

Proposals may be for all or any part of said notes and separate proposals will be required for each part of said notes for which a separate interest rate is bid. Said notes will be awarded at the lowest net interest cost to the Local Authority under such bid or bids, and in computing such interest cost the Local Authority will take into consideration any premium which any bidder offers to pay. No bid for less than $50,000 principal amount of said notes or for less than par and accrued interest (which interest shall be computed on a 360-day basis) will be entertained and the Local Authority reserves the right to award to any bidder all or any part of the notes which such bidder offers to purchase in his proposal, upon the basis of such proposal. If only a part of the notes bid for in a proposal are awarded by the Local Authority, the premium, if any, offered in such proposal shall be pro-rated, and said notes will be issued in denominations in the order of the lowest denominations specified in such proposal: provided, that one note may be issued in a smaller denomination than is otherwise specified. The further right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

In the event that prior to the delivery of any of the notes to the successful bidder therefor the income received by private holders from obligations of the same type and character shall be taxable by the terms of any Federal income tax law hereafter enacted, the successful bidder may, at his election, be relieved of his obligations under the contract to purchase said notes.

THOMPSON — U.S. Can't Avoid Decision in Coming Palestine 'Crisis'

The Palestine question is in a pea-soup fog as far as the American attitude is concerned, and the President's statement on Thursday only deepened it. If carefully read, it means nothing. It calls for truce—the truce that was found impossible before the partition plan was voted. It asks for a trusteeship—a substitute for the British mandate, which the assembly vote destroyed—and suggests postponing partition but not abandoning it. It leaves open the whole matter of enforcement of peace in the midst of a guerrilla war.

Time marches on. The effect of not looking before we leaped does not mean that we didn't leap, or are where we started.

One effect of reversal has been to close the international Zionist ranks, and line up the moderate Chaim Weizmann with Rabbi Silver. The Jews will set up a Palestine state on May 16. Therefore, partition will occur. And anyone who knows Palestinian Jewry — the ardor, the devotion, the fanaticism, the sacrifices that have gone into the creation of the Jewish colonies, and the toughness of body and spirit engendered—knows that that state will be defended.

It cannot—in all probability—be defended in Jerusalem, the Negeb, or the Galilee provinces. But it can and will be defended in the coastal areas. These areas can be supplied by sea. Will, then, the United States, champion of partition and home of half the world's Jewry, see the Jews driven into the Mediterranean?

And how about the Russians? In the meetings of the security council, where the U. S. creates a most embarrassing picture, the Russians are calm. For them the United Nations has spoken, the issue is settled, and they stand pat.

Behind the unwillingness of the U. S. to send troops to Palestine to enforce partition lies the dilemma that the Russians would be eligible to send them, too. We do not want the Red army where it would pass right behind our props in Turkey and Greece.

Thus the vacillation of American policy is due, not to fear of the Arabs, but to fear of taking a false and dangerous step that might bring to naught our entire foreign policy and turn the "cold" war into open conflict.

But what makes us think that the new Jewish state, if unsupported by America, will not—in extremis—appeal to the Soviets and that the Red army will not march to their aid?

The only answer I can get from responsible government sources is: "That would mean war. We don't believe the Russians want war."

Yet every recent move of the Russians — especially those in Czechoslovakia, Finland, Norway, and the tremendous election campaign in Italy—is a war move. Occupation of the Middle East is essential to drive the U. S. from Europe and Asia. The Russians, obviously, wish to harvest the fruits of a triumphant world war without committing a technical act of aggression. If the Red army marches into the Middle East, on the tail of departing British troops—which it could do with consummate ease, to endorse a U. N. decision promoted by the U. S.—would that be an act of aggression? Could they conceivably occupy the Arabian world on a better pretext or one which would more certainly divide the U. S.?

The Jewish agency does not want that solution, though there are within it powerful groups who do. But the Jewish state will certainly not go down without using every possible means.

And the U. S. cannot avoid a decision.

MAC — More Stories of the Village

BY P. H. McQUILLEN

Once upon a time—shortly after The MAC'S barged into this friendly village—we had a friend, a fellow citizen and a customer a florid faced Mick. Perhaps the nearness of the Wearin' of the Green brings to mind a review of this quaint character as well as the setting in which this rough diamond glistened.

One day after he had put his mules to bed for their evening siesta he hove in to our "Shrine of good fellowship" (Page Gene Mueller) to acquire, perhaps a bit of his usual tonic—or maybe his sedative, warning us, in his intriguing manner that he had "Five shares of San Antonio stock of his own." He meant that if any dilution was necessary he could take personal charge of blending.

At the moment we were entertaining one of that peculiar tribe of garrulous individuals who could lead one in a never ending circle of conversation and not arrive at a pause.

After listening to the harrangue for perhaps half an hour our thirst smitten friend watched the producer of the aimless floor show waddle out the front door and then succinctly remarked, "————— and they're still going to Africa for ivory."

Gottloff ? ? ? You've all been askin'. Well, John Alexander Gottloff Falkenrath is now a four-year-old. He wears long pants and grandfather, proudly, is still the apple of his eye. He is out for a week or two—now and then—not often enough to please either of us men folks. For the last year he has three sterling ambitions—namely, to be a garbage man, a trash man—and lately a sewer man. No inhibitions apparently and who can fathom the wild dreams of those reared in close proximity to SHANTY IRISH. If he turns out to be as good a man as some of those who served the city in these jobs, he'll earn his wages whatever he may do.

Cheerfully yours,
MAC

All In A Lifetime — Popular People

BOB RUARK — James Moran Has Quite a Background but He's Poet

NEW ORLEANS — Despite a background which includes a stint of barbering, bootblacking, boxing, bootlegging, bodyguarding and slot-machine operation, Master James Moran is a poet.

Jimmy is a poet when he talks about food, a commodity which he gave away for 20 years, and which now appears to be making him rich. He speaks of meat in iambic pentameter, and he is the only man I know who can endow an onion with sex-appeal. When Jimmy recites a recipe, he literally strokes the words with his fingers, and his eyes shine like a kid talking about Santa Claus.

In a town which considers a Frenchman as the only sincere candidate for restaurant ownership, Master Moran—an Italian whose real name is Brocato—is a recent, howling success. Jimmy opened his restaurant a short 15 months ago, and it has already entered the legendary category of New Orleans eatin'. Together with Arnaud's, Antoine's and Galatoire's, it stays packed . . . which is just as well, for Mr. Moran is a man of expensive tastes.

Such as diamonds. When James emerges for his morning stroll, he is a gorgeous thing to see. He represents, on an average day, something better than $100,000 on the hoof. Jimmy's collarpin is a diamond bar. His diamond and sapphire ring matches his sapphire and diamond cufflinks, which are about the size of golf balls. His belt buckle is diamond-studded, and so are his money-clip and solid gold cigarette lighter. He has a pair of diamond-spangled spectacles on order, and when he gets them he will be a happy man indeed.

To say that James is a dandy is drawing it mild. He owns some 75 suits, 100 pairs of shoes, 100 hats, 200 shirts, 12 overcoats and five dinner jackets, including a pale-green tuxedo. He smells as purty as he looks, for he is addicted to scented handkerchiefs which are always embroidered with his name. When Jimmy sets out to replenish his wardrobe, he does it grandly. His last purchase was 21 suits.

Jimmy was born in New Orleans, across from the French market. He used to stare at the diamond rings and shotguns in an old hock shop, and wonder of he'd ever own one. When he finally made some dough, his first purchase was a neat little bauble of four and one-half karats, and he owns some 30 gold engraved shotguns today.

Jimmy made his first touch shining shoes, progressed to barbering, went on to be a prize fighter, ran considerable rum during prohibition, looked after the New Orleans slot-machine racket for Frank Costello and Dandy Phil Kastel, two savory souls, and finally emerged as Huey Long's constant companion. It was Jimmy who arranged the now historic meeting between the late Huey P. and Robert Maestri, the ex-mayor and big politico. They met in a Turkish bath.

"Huey loved to wash," says Jimmy, fondly. "We spent more time in steam rooms than we did out of them. They used to call me his bodyguard. I was just his friend, but naturally, if anybody gives him any trouble, I am going to take care of him like any friend would. See pal?

Jimmy calls the people who buy his "diamond - studded" meatballs, brandied chicken and five-rib po'k chops pal. He calls his waiters and bartenders Mister. Nobody comes into the restaurant without receiving something, from a centerpiece of celery, olives and assorted delicatessen to a gratis bowl of fruit, "with the compliments of Mister Moran". He gives his handkerchiefs to ladies who admire them, and never tires of showing the customers his diamonds.

For a long time now, Mr. Moran has trod the straight-and-narrow. He has even withdrawn from politics, since, as he says, "both fractions come here to eat". An amateur cook for 25 years, James has such a fine hand in the kitchen that he was once publicly complimented by none other than Monsieur Jules Alciatore, patron saint of Antoine's. Since becoming a professional host, Jimmy's custom has been so heavy that he plans to open a couple of extra restaurants.

As I was saying, Mr. Moran is a poet, and he thinks he has everything necessary to a happy poetic existence — little things like diamonds, money, 75 suits, a few thousand friends, peace of mind and plenty of po' chops in the larder. No poet could ask for more — except maybe those diamond specs, and they're on the way.

RUSS-U.S. BOUNDARY

Soviet Soldiers, North Korean People Digging Trenches

(Editor's Note: Roy Roberts, Associated Press correspondent in Seoul, Korea, who on Friday was the first to report Soviet-sponsored North Koreans repeatedly broadcast invitations to South Koreans to take part in setting up a Russian-controlled Korean government, today visited the boundary between the U. S. and Soviet occupation zones. This is what he found.)

By ROY ROBERTS

OUTPOST 18 ON 38TH PARALLEL, KOREA (AP) — Soviet soldiers and North Korean villagers are digging trenches, foxholes and gun emplacements along the 38th parallel dividing the Soviet and American occupation zones of Korea.

Americans don't know why. They assume the Soviets ordered the World War I type of defensive line to justify Russian statements to North Koreans — reported by travelers from the north — that Americans and South Koreans plan to attack North Korea.

The digging was first observed by American patrols early this month. They presumed the first few undertakings were irrigation ditches. The activity stepped up sharply about March 9; the nature of the work became clear. One and two-man foxholes appeared.

The ditches became trenches six feet deep. Sometimes they were connected by communication trenches 2½ feet deep. Holes 10 feet in diameter were dug and given turret tops with openings for guns pointed south. No weapons were observed but at least one emplacement contains a bipod mount as large as that for an American 81 millimeter mortar.

U. S. Intelligence reports indicate the work is concentrated in five valleys containing the main travel routes between North and South Korea.

The trenches command a road in each valley and railroad lines in three. More than 32 trenches 30 to 50 feet long were counted along the invisible geographical line Saturday. Three or four new ones are observed daily.

The work was first noted on the Onjin peninsula on the western extremity. It spread eastward, valley by valley. The Onjin peninsula is entrenched almost solidly its entire width. The trenches there are so close to the parallel that one can toss rocks into them from the American zone.

Today's Birthday

(If you have a birthday this week or this month, call it in to 311-06 and we'll include you in this column.)

MAJ. GEN. FREDERICK UHL, born March 30, 1886, in Harrold, S. D., is known to millions of G.I.s as the man who organized and supervised their combat training for World War II. For this work in the Seventh Service Command (Omaha) and the Fourth Service Command (Atlanta), he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. He saw active duty in the South Pacific. A 1910 West Point graduate, he had served in France in World War I.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE FLAG CHASE OPENING TODAY; BANNER ATTENDANCE IS PREDICTED

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Pacific Coast league—baseball's traditional bellcow — opens another season of diamond activity today.

Always first to respond to the cry of "play ball", the P.C.L. tees off on its forty-sixth year with high hopes, pocketbooks—and medium-high talent.

San Francisco's Seals—always there or thereabouts under Lefty O'Doul, the coast's steadiest manager—again rank as favorites for the pennant over the elongated 188-game course.

The league — whose president, Clarence Rowland, hopes to make it major—has added considerable talent of major league status last year, as well as numerous promising rookies from lower loops.

Rowland predicts a banner season, topping even 1947 when some 4,660,000 fans were lured through the turnstiles for an all-time minor league record.

Tied Last Year

Experts fail, however, to see how the pennant race can be any closer than last year when Los Angeles and San Francisco battled to a dead heat in the season's standings and the Angels won a single game playoff, O'Doul, starting his fifteenth season as Seal skipper, has most of his 1947 team back plus Catcher Dixie Howell, Outfielder Gene Woodling and Infielders Jack Tobin, Frank Shofner and Mickey Rocco. The Seals' pitching appears deeper and more seasoned than other clubs'.

Los Angeles, with its better talent gone to the Chicago Cubs and elsewhere, is expected to battle to stay in the first division. Bill Kelly's men may have a hard time breaking through such apparently strengthened contenders as Oakland, Seattle and possibly Portland and Hollywood.

Oakland's mixture of veterans and hustling kids under scrappy Casey Stengel is regarded as a potential troublemaker.

Question Marks

Sacramento and San Diego, seventh and eighth last year, are still listed as question marks.

The openers:

San Francisco (Jack Brewer or Cliff Melton) at Sacramento (Tony Freitas or Jack Salveson).

Los Angeles (Red Lynn) at San Diego (Tom Seats).

Seattle (Herman Besse) at Hollywood (Rugger Ardizola).

Portland (Vince DiBiasi or Roy Helser) at Oakland (Will Hafey).

Sport-O-Graphs

BY DON BENSON

When spring football practice starts April 5th for the Pacific Coast conference, new-comer Howie Odell from dear 'old Yale, now in charge of the Washington Huskies, will give "our-boy" Anse McCullough the double "oh" for the first time. The Huskies weren't kidding about wanting Anse and brother Don. They are flying them up to Washington and will fly them back at the end of school year, they fly them back in the fall and also for the Xmas holidays. If all this air travel doesn't upset his nervous system, we'd like to stick our neck out and predict that Anse will be the number one boy when the season starts in September, for the Huskies.

The fact that Odell will be putting his first year in at the place will also help the McCullough cause, as he won't have any "left-overs" from the previous year and will probably be able to give newcomers and last year's lettermen an even and un-biased look.

'Tis said that the Washington institute of higher learning also wanted Chet Nicholson, the pass-snagging end, equally bad, but Chet wanted to go to a smaller college, so that he would not have to sit on the bench, and also get a better chance to play on the basketball team.

Frankly, we think that Chet would make any of the coast teams and would sit on the bench but little, as far as his football playing is concerned, especially on offense.

We predict that the Huskies also got a bargain by including Don McCullough in the deal. Don will make them a plenty good basketball player, as will Anse. Washington is noted for its swell journalism courses and both boys are interested in sports writing and that is said to have been the deciding factor as to where they were going to go. They've been giving the second guessers a bad time, having them at every school from West Point to Stanford, and now that they've settled for Washington, we can stop the second guessing and give them our best wishes for their future success. After all, this slender Ansel McCullough gave us some of the greatest football thrills we've ever had and I'll bet that goes for you, too!

Who can ever forget the games this kid of 19 saved for Chaffey ('course it took all 11 men) and the torrid tosses he threw in the Rose Bowl when the chips were down? If you saw him, there is small doubt that you'll ever forget him. In fact you'll probably remember him next year when you're sitting at Graber field and wish to heaven that he was still wearing a Panther jersey! !

While on the subject of football, Bob Sachs, the demon end, is still undecided as to where he is going to go next year. Bob is now busy with the Panther baseball team, being a hard-hitting outfielder on Ray Rosso's nine.

The Pacific Coast conference was in a huddle as this is being written, trying to iron out who would be awarded the sponsorship for airing their football games for the future, with a strong likelihood that a new deal would be established.

10 Named To Olympic Team

NEW YORK (AP)—The Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., and the Wildcats of the University of Kentucky will furnish 10 of the 14 players on the U. S. Olympic basketball squad.

In addition, the National and NCAA titleholders, who shot their way to the finals of the U. S. Olympic tryouts at Madison Square Garden last night, will meet in an exhibition series later this year to help pay expenses of the summer trip to London.

Bartlesville flattened the Denver Nuggets, 66-40, while Kentucky whipped Baylor university, 77-59, in the semi-finals.

America's Olympic cage squad will not be selected officially until tomorrow night, after Bartlesville and Kentucky clash in the finals of the tryouts and Denver and Baylor meet for third place.

The U. S. Olympic basketball committee has invited the Bartlesville and Kentucky coaches to recommend five men each for the American squad. Adolph Rupp, Wildcat mentor, said he would submit the names of his regular starters.

Coach Bud Browning of the AAU champions wants no part of such a responsibility:

"I have too many good boys on my squad to pick out the five who should make the trip. I'll let the committee select them."

The other four players on the Olympic squad will be named by the committee from among the remaining six teams in the playoffs.

Wolverines Start Grid Workouts

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Bennie Osterbaan, Michigan's new football coach, was hard at work today whipping together the squad he hopes will stand comparison with the fabulous Rose Bowl champions of his predecessor, Fritz Crisler.

He expressed concern over lack of the all-round depth that made the 1947 team so formidable.

More than 100 candidates poured out enthusiastically yesterday to work in a cold, wind-driven rain.

YANK CATCHER RESPRAINS FOOT

US. PERFORMERS IN DISCUS, JAVELIN SHOT VIRTUALLY CERTAIN OF VICTORY

(This is the sixth and last in a series on U. S. track and field prospects in the Olympic games.)

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

NEW YORK (AP) — Olympic titles in the discus, javelin and shotput are virtually certain to come to the United States at the London games this summer, with new records likely in all three.

The United States, whose principal Olympic strength lies in the field sports, might even sweep the top three places in these events and score heavily in the hammer throw.

Ironically, the best discus thrower in the world today, Bob Fitch, who holds the world record of 180 feet, 2 3/4 inches, recently removed himself as a prospective team member.. He became head football coach at Augustana college in his home town of Sioux Falls, S. D., that made him ineligible for Olympic competition.

But Fortune Gordien of the Minnesota varsity, who defeated Tich in the National AAU championships last summer, will be available. He got off a throw of 179 feet, 3 1/8 inches as his best in 1947 and Fitch predicts that Gordien will break the world record.

At any rate, he should snap the Olympic mark of 165 feet 7 3/8 inches set by Ken Carpenter when he won for the United States in 1936. Another discus thrower whose performance makes him a contender is Max Dodge of the San Francisco Olympic club. There also are numerous outsiders such as Hugh Mumby of California.

The best shot putter in the world is Charley Fonville of Michigan, who has broken the world indoor record twice this year.

His mightiest heave of 56 feet 10 5/8 inches, was the second longest ever achieved anywhere, closely approaching the world record of 57 feet, 1 inch set by Jack Torrance in 1934.

The United States also has probably a score of other shotputters who can better 53 feet, a distance unreached in any of the other Olympic countries throughout 1947.

Those likely to become Fonville's teammates in the final Olympic tryouts include Francis Delaney of the San Francisco Olympic club, outdoor titleholder; Moose Thompson of the Los Angeles Athletic club, and Gordien.

Virtually all can beat the 53 feet 1¾ inches with which Hans Woelike of Germany set the Olympic record in 1936.

The Red, White and Blue certainly should have an Olympic javelin winner in Steve Seymour, the national champion from the Los Angeles Athletic club.

After watching Martin Biles of the Olympic club throw the spear 226 feet 5 1/8 inches for a new meet record at the National AAU championships last summer, Seymour stepped up and hurled it 248 feet, 10 inches.

That effort, less than ten feet short of the world record, marked the first time an American ever had surpassed 240 feet.

Other good throwers include Delf Pickart of the Los Angeles AC, Bud Held of Stanford, and Bob Likens of San Jose State.

The Olympic record of 238-7 was set by Matti Jarvinien of Finland in 1932.

Good javelin throwers from other countries include Pettersson of Sweden, 238 feet 9 inches; Hautavaara of Finland, 237-7; Ayytiainen of Finland, 236-2; Kiesewetter of Czechoslovakia, 235-2.

Gaels To Select New Coach Today

MORAGA (AP) The St. Mary's college athletic board meets today amid predictions that it will name a head football coach from among these four aspirants:

Bernie Masterson, formerly at Nebraska..

The Gael job was left vacant by the resignation of James Phelan, who quit to coach the Los Angeles Dons in the All-America pro conference.

March Permits Here Above $100,000

With one business day yet remaining, March was safely enrolled today on the roster of Upland's $100,000 building months.

An unofficial tabulation of building reports in Inspector Richard Derby's office yesterday, revealed total construction for the month stands at $106,605. Although only 27 permits had been issued as of yesterday, the value per permit was high—almost $4,000.

Latest permits issued included the following:

Jack Banner, to sandblast old paint and plaster the front wall of his cafe at 101-09 North Second avenue at a cost of $800.

Permit for a $700 garage was taken by Clara Chavez, 112 Tenth avenue. Also issued yesterday was one to W. O. Stuard, 639 Pine street, for a cement floor in a garage at his home. Cost was $75.

P. J. Weiland, 132 North Euclid avenue, has accepted a permit for alterations to the interior of his residence. Value is $500.

Also issued within the week was a permit to the Upland Church of Christ for alterations to the interior of the church edifice. Church officials said they would expend $1000.

ONTARIO PERMITS

Recent building permits in Ontario include the following:

V. Cowens, a five-room frame stucco home at 623 Plaza Serena. Cost $8470. Joe Vahey, 106 Parkside, Upland; a six-room, $8800 home at 537 Princeton.

Albert Delping, 1148 West A, plans a three-room frame stucco residence at that address. T. C. Archibald, 409 West Park street, will build a five-room home at 516 Flora. Cost is $8475.

BUILDING & Real Estate

Dollar Freeze Hits Building

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — A slowdown in home construction caused by a sudden shortage of financing occupied 300 delegates today at the first annual conference of the Home Builders Council of California.

"Builders all over the country find themselves unable to proceed with construction under commitments already issued by the federal housing administration because their sources of production finance have suddenly dried up," said Milton J. Brock of Los Angeles, president of the National Association of Home Builders. Brock will speak at a dinner meeting tonight.

He said the danger arose so recently the federal government and veterans groups have yet to realize its full seriousness.

The slowdown was blamed on demands by banks of higher interest rates, plus the fact many financial institutions have reached their limit of funds available for home building.

Start Rehearsals Of 'Ramona' Pageant

With Juanita Encell and William Pullen in the roles of Ramona and Allesandro, the Centennial year production of the famous California historical play, "Ramona" opened rehersals Saturday in Hemet.

Playing dates for the 21st season of California's most famous spectacle will be Saturday and Sunday afternoon April 17 and 18, April 24 and 25 and May 1 and 2 at the Ramona bowl.

Reserved seats are now on sale.

Y's Men Meet at Chino Institution

Regular meeting of the Y's Mens club of Ontario was held last week at the Chino Institution for Men. Ralph Andres, presided.

Rev. Dallas Gladson conducted the program of entertainment and gave members a tour of the institution grounds.

Fear Suspect May Commit Suicide

SANTA ROSA (AP) — Sheriff's officers today quoted Laszlo Varga as telling other jail inmates "this would be a fine place to commit suicide."

This resulted in the sheriff's posting a strict watch over the 19-year-old ex-divinity student accused of the rape-slaying of a Nevada minister's wife, deputies said.

The Hungarian refugee is scheduled to appear April 6 in Petaluma police court to answer to a federal warrant charging him with flight to escape prosecution on a murder charge.

PLACES BAN

TOKYO, (AP)—General MacArthur invoked a general strike ban today to halt rapidly spreading walkouts by Japanese government workers.

Chaffey Ag School Honored

A presentation of the methods which have made the Chaffey college agricultural program an outstanding one of its kind, will be made by Rex Wignall, department head, at the Southern California assembly of junior college administrators in San Bernardino April 6-7.

Selection of Chaffey to present this phase of the program was made by B. R. Denbigh, regional supervisor of agricultural education of the state department of education.

Primary purpose of the conference is to discuss and make recommendations for improving training in the vocational fields of agriculture, trades, industry, homemaking, education business, education and vocational guidance, Mr. Denbigh said.

The conference will be held at San Bernardino Valley college and will be attended by school administrators, teachers and vocational representatives of the state education department.

If only one-half of a head of cabbage is used for slaw or some other dish the remaining head should be wraped in waxed paper and stored in the refrigerator.

Attorneys Fees Not Required

Veterans are not required to pay attorneys or agents for representing them in monetary claims against the Veteran's administration.

Fees for such services are payable only by the VA itself and are deducted from the monetary benefit due the veteran at the time the claim is allowed.

Outlines Ban on Political Posters

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Candidates for public elections were reminded that state law forbids political posters, billboards, or banners on pubilc highway rights of way.

George T. McCoy, state highway engineer, announced that under the law all such advertising would be immediately destroyed.

Douse Car Fire

Upland firemen were summoned Sunday afternoon to extinguish a blaze in an automobile on Foothill boulevard just west of Benson avenue.

Cause of the fire, which did damage in the amount of $25, was believed to have been a short in the wiring. The machine, owned by H. Cohen, San Bernardino, was removed from the scene by tow car.
